

Attractiveness and impact of PhD training

22/07/2020, Eurodoc conference

EUF EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY
FOUNDATION

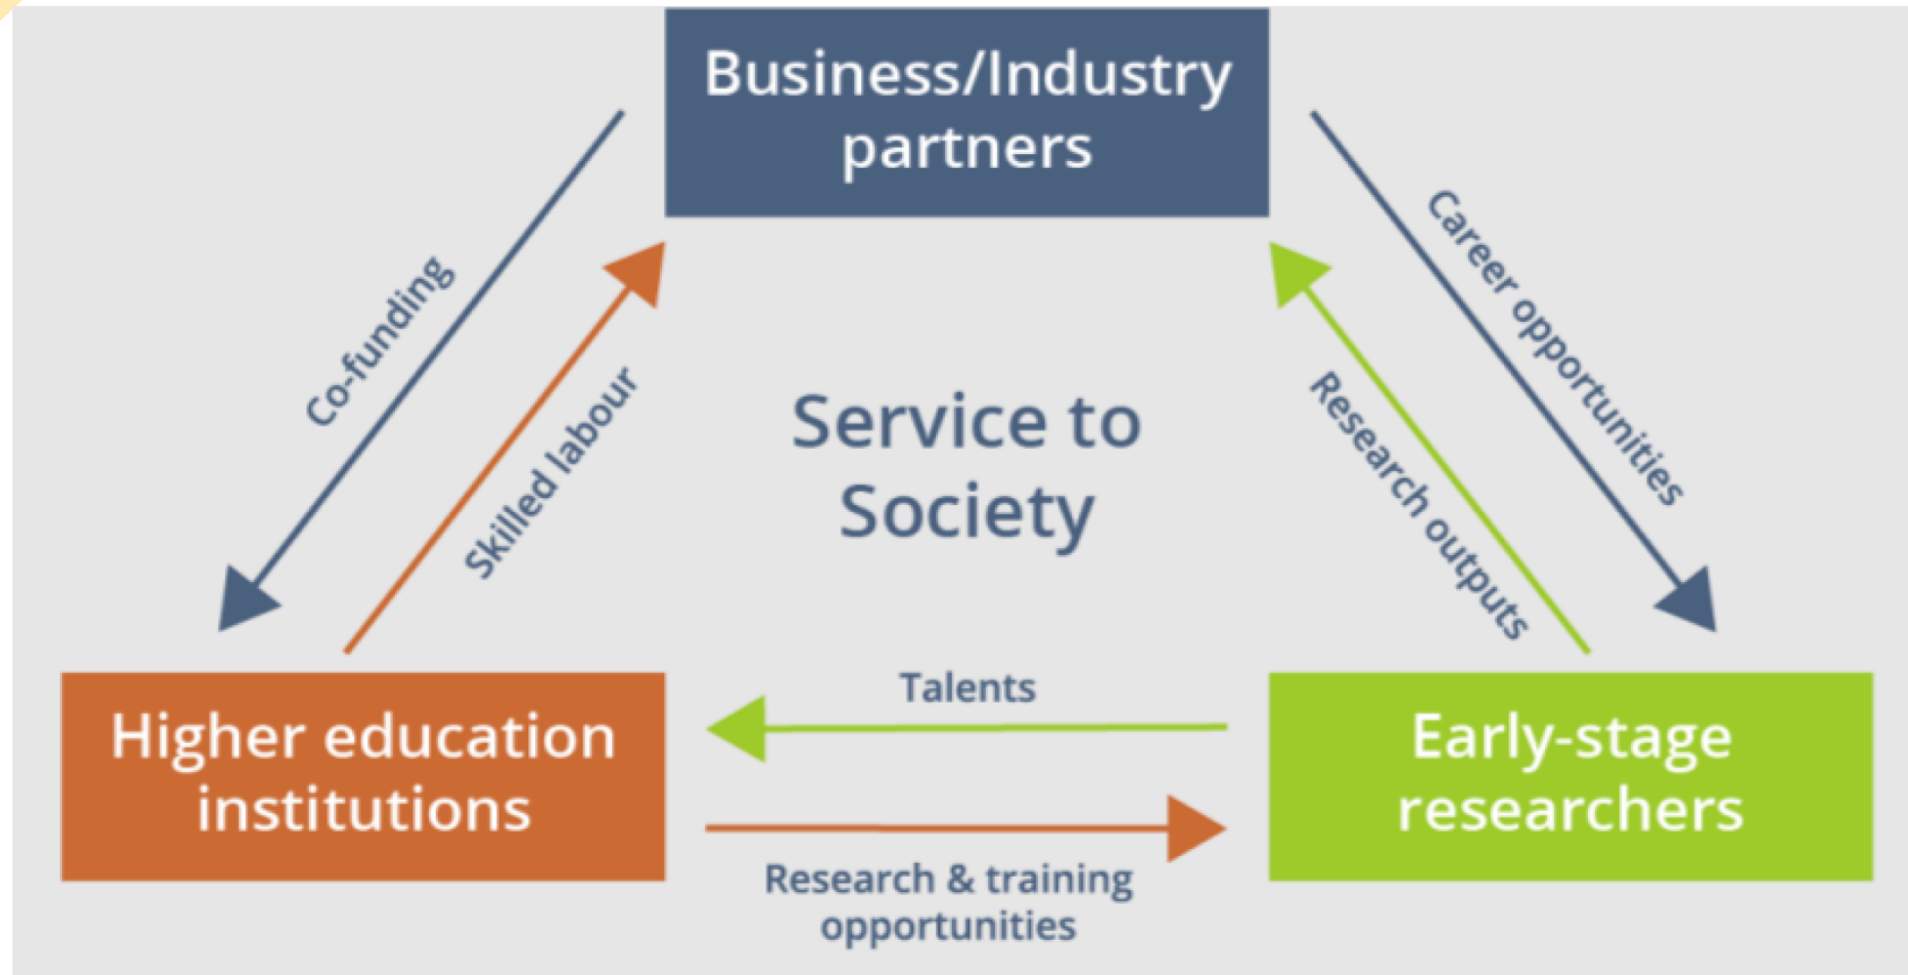

Challenges and opportunities

- Untapped potential of PhD research results
- Missing cooperation with industry and society at large
- Cross-border cooperation is not deployed to its full potential

The logo for phdhub features the text 'phdhub' in a stylized, lowercase font. The letters 'p', 'h', 'd', and the first 'h' are dark blue, while the 'u', 'b', and the second 'h' are orange. The letters are composed of thick, rounded strokes. Below the 'phdhub' text is the tagline 'CONNECT · RESEARCH · INNOVATE' in a dark blue, uppercase, sans-serif font. The tagline is centered under the 'phd' portion of the main text.

CONNECT · RESEARCH · INNOVATE

What has been done so far

- Anchor cooperation locally (‘local hubs’)
- Map research fields to match interest (‘semantic annotation’)
- Develop an online community platform (‘phdhub.eu’)
- Initiate cooperation between industry and ESRs (‘call for cooperation’)

What is next?

- Grow the number of local hubs (new universities joining)
- Reach a critical mass of users (ESRs)
- Expand involvement of industry through stakeholders (eg. chambre of commerces)
 - Improve attractiveness of PhD training for the non-academic world
- Fine tune the functionalities of the platform (phdhub.eu)

The European PhD Hub vision

A quality framework for University-Business cooperation

Core advantages of PhD Hub

- International
- Intersectoral
- Interdisciplinary

International

Internationalise
doctoral training

Connected

Connect research and innovation
actors

Empowering

Offer early-stage researchers the opportunity to innovate

Join the PhDHub

- Eurodoc is a partner of a follow-up EU funding proposal submitted in 2020
- Ideas on how to further develop the platform are welcome
- Share the idea of joining with your respective institutions to grow the community
